THISTLE CLUB TO OBSERVE HOLIDAY

An Entertaining Program to be Arranged — Speakers of Prominence Expected to Attend.

The Scotch Thistle club of Mishawaka at a meeting held in the Hotel Mishawaka Wednesday evening decided to observe St. Andrew's day, Monday, Nov. 29, with a banquet in the Hotel Mishawaka.

In the absence of Duncan J. Campbell, president of the society, the chair was taken by Stanley McIntosh, vice-president. The meeting was well attended, several of the members being present from South Bend and other outside towns. It was the unanimous feeling of the meeting that St. Andrew's day should be observed in a fitting way by the local society. Among the suggestions offered the chair was one that the services of a good Scotch orator, familiar with that country's history, be secured to deliver the address on the occasion. The name of David B. Forgan, the eminent financier of Chicago, was mentioned, and it was decided to make an effort to secure Mr. Forgan's services. It was this gentleman who delivered the Burns' oration before the Scotch club at its initial banquet in South Bend a few years ago. An effort will also be made to secure a good local speaker. The evening's program will be a varied one. Of course there will be a highland piper in full regalia, and one or more vocalists familiar with Scottish songs. It is possible a highland dancer will be secured, as well as other features of a national character.

The Scotch "haggis" will occupy the place of honor on the banquet table, and will be the piece de resistance of the menu. Mine host, Bert DeVault, has promised to surpass himself on this occasion, and will provide all the Scotch dishes the varied epicurean could desire.

ENGELDRUM RETURNS FROM EASTERN POINTS

J. J. Engeldrum returned Wednesday from an eastern trip. Mr. Engeldrum visited the national capital and other eastern cities. While at Washington he was favored with a long interview with Sen. Shively and Congressman Barnhart.

It was partly the intentions of Mr. Engeldrum to go abroad when he left Mishawaka several weeks ago. At that time he said he was partially aware of the conditions existing in the east but thought that it was possible to make arrangements for German reports. When he arrived at New York he investigated the situation and found that a trip to Europe was a most hazardous undertaking at the present time. He stated that he intended to leave for Germany on the ship which left Oct. 6th. Dispatches since have stated that this ship struck a mine on its trip over and several people were injured. He also stated that the ship was so damaged that it was hardly able to reach Rotterdam without assistance.

Mr. Engeldrum will leave about Sunday for Los Angeles, Cal., where he will be joined by Mrs. Engeldrum. Mr. and Mrs. Engeldrum will make their future home in the west.

PLEASANT VALLEY MEETING.
A largely attended meeting of demonstrators was held in the school house at Pleasant Valley, Wednesday evening, to listen to an address by Charles Bingham, who was introduced to the audience by John W. Schindler. Several of the township candidates were present. Mr. Bingham delivered an interesting address on the general issues of the day, and his remarks were well received by the large audience. Several of the local candidates also spoke. Mr. Bingham will again speak at Osceola Friday evening.

NEW THEATER PROJECT IS BEING DISCUSSED

Mayor Gaylor, Postmaster John Herzog, Charles A. Ostrom, George Senger and John B. Berschelt returned from Chicago Wednesday evening where they had gone to interview J. R. Mills, proprietor of the old Hudson property on Lincoln highway east, with a view to having him erect a three story building suitable for a theater on the above site. It was the intention of Mr. Mills to make the building but one story, but the deputation, having at heart the welfare of their city, impressed upon Mr. Mills the reasons why, in their opinion, the height should be increased. Mr. Mills, who is familiarly known as the pineapple king of the country, received the deputation of business men most graciously, and listened attentively to what they had to say. While not giving a definite answer, he led the deputation to understand that he would favorably consider the proposition, and that he would come to Mishawaka Tuesday or Wednesday of next week and go thoroughly into the matter. Messrs. Berschelt and Senger, it is understood, made Mr. Mills an offer to take a long lease on the building which they will use for theatrical purposes. These two gentlemen at present own the Century and Princess playhouses, the only two in the city.

ENGLISH CLASSES TO START TONIGHT

As a part of the extension courses offered every year by the Y. M. C. A., classes in English for non-English speaking people will be started in Mishawaka Thursday evening. They will be held on the second floor of the Main school every Monday and Thursday and will be in charge of L. R. Ruby.

A class in naturalization probably will be started later, as many of the foreigners are anxious to learn civil government in order to obtain their naturalization papers.

Over 275 non-English speaking men attended the various classes given by the association extension department last year and the size of the classes that have already been started this year indicates that even a larger number will be enrolled this winter.

CHIEF KREITER GIVES OUT WRONG INFORMATION

In a report of the proceedings of the city court held Wednesday, The News-Times was made to say that Henry Van Ocker was found guilty of intoxication and fined $1.50 by Judge Feig. The story was a pure fabrication and was given to this paper by ex-Chief of Police Kreiter as "news." The reporter accepted the chief's story in good faith and handed in the item for publication in the usual routine. Mr. Van Ocker is deeply offended by the publicity given him. He is a highly respected citizen and has never been arrested during his long residence in Mishawaka.

METHODIST LADIES' AID TO GIVE SOCIAL SUPPER

A splendid meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Memorial church was held Wednesday afternoon in the entertainment parlors of the church. At the business session it was decided to give a New England supper and social Nov. 10, at the church. Plans for this affair were partly completed and will be further at the next meeting of the society.

Following the business session a program was carried out. Travel talk by Rev. Loren M. Edwards; reading by Florence Stuller; piano solo, Miss Ada Mecklenburg. A luncheon was also served. The entertainment Wednesday afternoon was in charge of Mrs. John LaPrairie's division.

The new early closing arrangement will go into force Monday, Nov. 2. C. C.
